The Flow of Money & How to Easily Flow it to You!

- Seqkat Winn

$ The first agenda of this report is to show you how SIMPLE the flow of money is. You'll come to understand there is no way money can fail you if you follow all the steps.

The first thing to understand is what exactly money is. It is merely a symbol. It's a symbol of the energy of trade. Broken down even more it's a symbol of give and receive.

$ Money is a symbol of the Energy of Give and Receive.
Receive and Give.

In light of that money is supposed to flow! It's supposed to be given and it's supposed to be received. It's not meant to be stagnate. It's not meant to be without purpose.

Energy like all things is a vibration that attracts which it is like, what it matches. And many of you may recognize this as the Law of Attraction, (which cannot fail!): Like attracts like. So, how then do you get money to be attracted to you? By remembering its essence and understanding what its vibrational energy is. And that again is:

$ Money is a symbol of the Energy of Give and Receive. Receive and Give.

So, that which attracts money to you is having an idea of what you want to use that money for. The receiving of money has occurred once you attain it. But how are you going to give it? It's not something to hold. It's meant to flow. So, if you have an idea of how to spend it, you're attracting money, because it's a matching vibration to being received AND given.

So, instead of just wanting money – know what you want it for. Even if you want to save it, have an idea on what you'll spend that savings on. Don't save it to just pile it up and never be used. Save it for a house, a car, a computer, etc., or to pay cash for whatever 'need' or desire that comes to you in the future.

$ The Spending Plan -

This is where the fun comes in. Make a spending plan. How do you make this spending plan? Really tune into who you are and what you really want. Take a few moments and take some deep breaths, (I communicate with my Higher Self – more on that later!) and ask yourself what is it you really want? What idea gives you the greatest joy? What idea causes your passion to fire up?

Now caution here. This is the place where ego in its protective survival mode, likes to step in and not even allow you to consider what you want. It does this to protect you from the pain of never attaining it. And it's perfectly alright it's doing this. It's doing exactly what it's supposed to do. There's no need to hate it or shun it, which in actuality causes you more discord with yourself, and serves to block the flow of money (or anything you want) from flowing to you. Understanding and loving your ego is how you allow things to flow.

You can side track it for now just by entertaining the thought at this moment:

If I had all the money in the world, what would I want? What would I do?

Right now, you're just in imagination land and there's no harm in it. And with that thought you can show your ego that you're completely safe. Hug your ego. It deserves to be understood. It's doing it's job that it's supposed to do. Understanding your ego is a way of loving yourself and that unleashes an endless amount of magic within you.

You just want to know what it is that you really, really want. And this is where communicating with your Higher Self is very helpful. Your Higher Self is the very essence of you, and knows who you really are, and what exactly it is that you really want and would allow you to thrive being fully who you are.

If you'd like to learn how to communicate with your Higher Self, we have a great, FREE Video Guided Meditation for you to help you do that:

$ Spending Plan Steps -

1. Write down all the things you want! (Fun and exciting!)
2. Intend you will have them! (Now you understand how you really can attain it!)
3. Intend that you'll be happy to SPEND the money that comes your way to attain it. (Ooh, money is loving that – you've become irresistible!)
4. Most important part! Be grateful for all that you have NOW! (This keeps you from going into attachment which can block money! More on that later.)
5. Spend time visualizing to the point you actually feeeel you already have what's on your spending list! (Feeling you have it, makes you a matching vibration to having it, which by the Law of Attraction you have to be in to attain it!)

And the money will head straight to you for it!

But here comes the big BUT. Trust me, if you did the above the money IS coming to you. But if you're asking why your wish list hasn't already been filled, because you know you want this and you want that, but you don't have it – it's not because the money isn't coming to you! It's because you won't allow yourself to receive it!

$ When the money is coming to you, you have to allow yourself to receive it.

What you have to look at now is how you're not allowing yourself to receive it. How are you blocking yourself from the experience of having it?

This is where your thoughts and beliefs kick in. Remember how I said energy is attracted to the vibration of energy that matches it? When your thoughts and beliefs are not matching that energy of having money – guess what. Yep, you know this. You find yourself lacking it.

So, you have to now change your beliefs to make yourself a match of having that money that is banging at the door, begging you to let it in!

$ Here's some places to look for blocking beliefs:

- Money is evil. (It's not evil – it's simply an energy of give and receive, receive and give.)
- Only rich people get it. (It's available to everyone! The rich people just figured out how to allow themselves to have it.)
- You don't feel worthy. (Money is a neutral energy. It's not judging you as bad or good. It's just looking for its matching vibration of give and receive, receive and give.)

- You've always been poor. (That isn't a doom declaration that you always will be. That's just an expression of your past beliefs of not allowing money in. You're learning how it all works now! The game is changing for you!)
- Some rich are born rich and some poor are born poor. Doesn't that break the theory of matching vibration? (We all come into this game of life, choosing certain vibrations with which to start out for own personal growth and expansion. Law of Attraction is without fail! Change your thoughts and beliefs and you change your vibration!)
- Rich people are greedy and snobby. (You're associating some people's attitudes to be the same as money's. Money isn't a person. It doesn't have an attitude. It's a neutral energy that did not embody as a human entity.)
- Money is hard to get. (You're seeing now how EASY it is to attain it!)
- Clearing the beliefs is hard. (We invite you to employ our free, easy technique Erase It & Replace It – to help you with those beliefs!)
- You think you won't be happy until you have money. (This is called attachment and is a huge blocker of money and we'll address that soon here!)

Did you see any of your beliefs in that list that can be blocking you from allowing yourself to enjoy the benefit of having an abundance of money?

You can ask yourself too, (again, I would ask my Higher Self) to be shown if there are any other beliefs in regards to money that could be causing the blockage(s) as well.

$ Releasing Attachment -

Now, let's look at that big bad one called ATTACHMENT. Attachment on getting your new thang whatever it may be and placing your happiness on the attainment of that – just stops it right in its tracks. That's called resistance.

What's happening with resistance is you are focused on you don't have what you want yet. So, guess what your vibration is? You don't have what you want yet. So, what is the matching vibration to that? You don't have what you want yet. And by the Law of Attraction which cannot fail – guess what you're experiencing, because like attracts like? Yep, you don't have what you want yet.

So, how do we let go of this attachment? By being happy NOW. How can you possibly be happy now, when you're dying to get that thing you want so badly?

By learning to enjoy what you HAVE. This is very important. If you don't enjoy what you HAVE, guess what's going to happen when you get what you want? You will HAVE it. And guess what's going to slip away? Yep, you enjoying what you have!

How can you easily start enjoying what you have? The magic ingredient here is GRATITUDE. Pause and be thankful for the things you have. To make this even stronger start a gratitude log. Write down the things you have now that you enjoy. Pause a moment and consider why you enjoy them. It can be as simple as you enjoy having lights, because it's pretty darn convenient, when you flip on a switch in a dark room, you now can see. And I'm sure you understand how convenient this is, if you've ever experienced losing your lights briefly to weather or whatnot. Pets, people, circumstances in your life. What do you enjoy about them? Write it down. Go into detail. Feel the joy!

A good practice is to daily write down things you're for which you thankful. What happened yesterday or today that was new that delights you? Or what do you have always that gives you joy, (like maybe that purring kitty in your lap :3)?

When I start writing in mine, I catch myself smiling, and feeling absolutely great! The experience lifts my vibration to be one of being happy NOW – which makes me a matching vibration to continue to experience being happy NOW, which draws more things to me that make me feel happy! And then when I get something new, the honeymoon stage doesn't die with having it. I continue to maintain joy that I have it. :)

There have been studies that revealed the happiest people are the most grateful people. And I can testify in my life experiences, I'm at my most happiest, when I feel grateful.

$ Spreading the Money!-

Now here's an interesting scenario for those of you generous of heart to consider. Step into the future now, where you've cleared all your limited beliefs around money, and you're utilizing a spending plan and you have money just rolling in for you! And you want to share your abundance with others! And not only as a one time thing. You want to see them thrive and maintain the abundance like you have. How can you gift that to one who doesn't have the matching vibration to hold that abundance?

Educate them! This is the very purpose of this report! I want to see everyone thriving with abundance! Teach them, tell them, explain to them how the flow of money works. Show them how to attract it, and clear any beliefs that may block them from allowing them to have it.

If it sounds a little difficult for you to do, you can direct them to this get this free report! They can sign up for their very own copy at Wize Vibez TEC. My mission is to get Everyone Thriving. The more of us that are willing to share the education on attaining and maintaining the abundance the more who are ready for it can receive it!

Now take note on that, 'who are ready for it'. You sure may have loved ones that just can't open up and believe what you're saying. They are not ready for it. They're on their own pace of growth and expansion and they are entitled to their own pace just you like you and me are. My goal is to share the wisdom with those who are ready for it. For they are the only ones who can truly receive it.

The old adage, 'You can lead a horse to water but you can't make it drink,' rings true here. Everyone is entitled to their own choices and their own paces, even if it's painful for us to see them, as what we may define as suffering. Remember, it's their growth and expansion. We ourselves, if you look back, grew the most during what we define as those hard times.

If you're learning from this report right now how to attract money and allow yourself to have it, guess what. You Are Ready to Receive Money. That's why you are here. You are a matching vibration to it. It's no accident you are reading this.

$ So, let's do a quick recap for you to nail down this flowing money thang.

- Money is a Symbol. Understand money is merely a symbol of the neutral energy of give and receive. Receive and give.
- This Energy is Meant to Flow. Because of that to attract money, you need a purpose for it. Where are you going to give it, (spend it), after you receive it. You need a target to aim at. Money loves that!
- Make a Spending Plan. Write it down. That strengthens the creation of it in our 3D reality.
- Seeing is Believing and Believing is Seeing. Visualize yourself having the things now on your spending plan to the point you feel the joy of it.
- Let it In! Allow yourself to receive the money that is coming right for you! Do this by clearing negative beliefs and definitions you have about money.
- Be Happy NOW. This keeps you from betting your happiness ONLY upon receiving what you want, keeping you healthily detached.

- Be Grateful for What You HAVE Now. Keep a gratitude log. You'll never continue to enjoy what you get unless you know how to enjoy what you have. And enjoying what you have places you in the vibration of joy of having, which makes you a match to the joy of having your new desires. It becomes an endless cycle of joy!
- Giving Back! Want to share that mula? Beautiful! Donate, give it, spend it! Money is loving ya for it! Want others to thrive with a continued flow of financial abundance like you? Educate them! Teach them what you have learned. Respect those who are ready for it that they will thrive too. And respect those who aren't ready for it – it's okay for them to stay where they are.

It really is this SIMPLE to get the flow of Money flowing towards you! Trust you have enough and can spend what you get, and that you have more than enough and that will keep it flowing to you. And yes, you can save money. Just keep an intention it's being saved to spend for future desires or unexpecteds, not to hoard.

Now, with all of this I'm not saying be irresponsible and only buy the things you want. Of course buy the things you need, like food, shelter and paying your bills too. But understand spending money on those things is keeping the money in flow too. Have you ever felt like you have just enough? Just enough for the food, shelter and bills? It's because you're intending to spend it on those items and it's attracting the money! You're utilizing a mental spending plan! And your beliefs are you have enough for that, and so, you're allowing yourself to receive that 'just enough'. Use that as evidence that you can also allow yourself to receive an abundance – more than enough!

Enjoy the flow of money as the energy of give and receive, receive and give was meant to be enjoyed! :)
